Title: Functional limit theorems for the Polya urn

Abstract: For the Polya urn with two colors, black and white, we prove a functional central limit theorem for the number of white balls assuming that the original number of black balls is large. Depending on the initial number of white balls, the limit is a birth process or a diffusion. The talk is based on joint work with Dr. Dimitra Kouloumbou.